PROTECTIVE ORDER (CLEAN).DOC

STIPULATION RE CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

247 MW

1 WHEREAS the undersigned parties appearing in this bankruptcy case anticipate 2 that confidential; and/or proprietary information (hereinafter, "Confidential Information") will be 3 produced in discovery in connection with the adjudication of Claim numbers 390, 896, 1608 and 4 1610 (the "claims"); and,

5 WHEREAS the undersigned parties desire to protect their Confidential
6 Information and the Confidential Information of others from public disclosure except as required
7 by law and as is necessary for the resolution of these claims;

8 THEREFORE, THE UNDERSIGNED PARTIES, BY AND THROUGH THEIR 9 COUNSEL OF RECORD, HEREBY STIPULATE AND AGREE and ask that the Court enter a 10 protective order according the following terms:

11 1. Confidential Information is information (i) which has not been made 12 public, and (ii) which concerns or relates to the confidential, proprietary, and/or private 13 investments, accounts, transactions, tax information, or other business dealings (including 14 compromise of claims) of persons, partnerships, limited liability companies, or corporations, 15 whether or not a party to these claims, the disclosure of which could cause harm to the person, 16 partnership, limited liability company, and/or corporation, or which would violate such person's 17 privacy rights or cause such person to breach an agreement to maintain confidentiality. In 18 connection with discovery proceedings for these claims, the parties may designate any document,
19 thing, material, or testimony containing Confidential Information, or other information derived
20 therefrom, as Confidential Information under the terms of this Stipulation Re. Confidential
21 Information; Order Thereon (hereinafter, "Order").

22 2. Confidential Information shall be so designated by stamping copies of the 23 documents produced to a party with the legend "CONFIDENTIAL." By designating a document, 24 thing, material, testimony or other information derived therefrom as "CONFIDENTIAL" under 25 the terms of this Order, the party making the designation is certifying to the Court that there is a 26 good faith basis both in law and in fact for the designation within the meaning of Federal Rule of 27 Civil Procedure 26(g).

3. Discovery of non-parties may involve receipt of information, documents, things or testimony which include or contain Confidential Information. A non-party producing such material in this case may designate as "CONFIDENTIAL" some or all of the material it produces in the same manner provided for in this Order with respect to material furnished by or on behalf of the parties to these claims. Any party may also designate as "CONFIDENTIAL" any materials or information produced by a non-party that constitutes Confidential Information of the designating party under Paragraph 2 of this Order, regardless of whether the producing non-party has also so designated. Non-party materials designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or by a non-party or party shall be governed by the terms of this Order.

8 AD 4. Testimony given at a deposition, ~~hearing, trial, or any other judicial proceeding~~ may be designated as Confidential Information by an appropriate statement on the record at the time of the giving of such testimony. Arrangements shall be made with the court reporter taking and transcribing the testimony to separately bind such portions of the transcript containing information designated as Confidential Information, and to label such portions appropriately.

6. Material designated as Confidential Information under this Order, the information contained therein, and any summaries, copies, abstracts, or other documents derived in whole or in part from material designated as Confidential Information (hereinafter "Confidential Material") shall be used by the parties only for the purposes of prosecution, defense, settlement, or appeal of these claims, and may not be used by the parties or their attorneys or agents for any other purpose or furnished to anyone else for any other purpose. Moreover, nothing herein is or shall be construed as a waiver to oppose production of any information on any other basis.

7. Confidential Material produced pursuant to this Order may be disclosed or made available only to the Court and Court personnel, to a party, to counsel for a party (including the paralegal, clerical, and secretarial staff employed by such counsel), and to the "qualified persons" designated below:

- 1 a. An officer, director, or employee of a party deemed necessary by
- 2 counsel to aid in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of these
- 3 claims;
- 4 b. experts or consultants (together with their clerical staff) retained by
- 5 such counsel to assist in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of
- 6 these claims;
- 7 c. the court reporters and videographers employed in connection with
- 8 the litigation of these claims;
- 9 d. witnesses at any deposition or other proceeding in in connection
- 10 with the litigation of these claims; and,
- 11 e. any other person as to whom the parties in writing agree.

12 Prior to receiving or reviewing any Confidential Material, whether at deposition or otherwise,
13 each "qualified person" shall be provided with a copy of this Order and shall execute a 14 nondisclosure agreement in the form of Attachment A, a copy of which shall thereafter be 15 provided to counsel for each other party.

16 8. In the event a party receives a subpoena or other request pursuant to the 17 Federal or any state code or rules of civil procedure requesting Confidential Information, such 18 party shall inform the below-signed counsel for the producing party of the Confidential
19 Information in sufficient time to permit counsel for that party to object or otherwise respond to 20 the subpoena or request as appropriate.

21 9. Nothing in this Order shall impose any restrictions on the use or disclosure 22 by a party of material obtained by such party independent of discovery in connection with these 23 claims, whether or not such material is also obtained through discovery in connection with these 24 claims, or from disclosing its own Confidential Material as it deems appropriate. Nothing in this 25 Order shall prevent any party or counsel for any party from showing or revealing Confidential 26 Material to persons who wrote, created, or received such Confidential Material at or around the 27 time of its creation.

28

1 10. If Confidential Material, including any portion of a deposition transcript
2 designated as Confidential, is included in any papers to be filed in the Court, such papers shall be 3 labeled "Confidential -- Subject to Court Order" and filed under seal until further order of this 4 Court. All such filings shall also conform to the requirements Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
5 and the Local Rules for filing documents under seal.

6 11. In the event that any Confidential Material is used in any court proceeding 7 in connection with these claims, it shall not lose its confidential status through such use, and the 8 party using such shall take all reasonable steps to maintain its confidentiality during such use.

9 12. The inadvertent or unintentional disclosure by a producing party of 10 Confidential Material during the course of this litigation, regardless of whether the information
11 was so designated at the time of disclosure, shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a 12 party's claim of confidentiality, either as to the specific information disclosed or as to any other 13 information relating thereto or on the same or related subject matter. Counsel for the parties 14 shall in any event, to the extent possible, upon discovery of inadvertent error, cooperate to restore
15 the confidentiality of the Confidential Material that was inadvertently or unintentionally 16 disclosed.

17 13. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of the parties (i) to bring 18 before the Court at any time the question of whether any particular document or information is 19 confidential or whether its use should be restricted, or (ii) to present a motion to the Court under 20 FRCP 26(c) for a separate protective order as to any particular document or information, 21 including restrictions differing from those specified in this Order. This Order shall not be 22 deemed to prejudice the parties in any way in any future application for modification of this 23 Order.

24 14. This Order is entered solely for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of 25 documents and information between the parties to these claims without involving the Court 26 unnecessarily in the process. Nothing in this Order nor the production of any information or 27 document under the terms of this Order nor any proceedings pursuant to this Order shall be 28

1 deemed to have the effect of an admission or waiver by any party, or of altering the 2 confidentiality or nonconfidentiality of any such document or information, or altering any 3 existing obligation of any party.

4 15. This Order shall survive the final termination of these claims, to the extent
5 that the information contained in Confidential Material is not or does not become known to the 6 public, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction to resolve any dispute concerning the use of 7 information disclosed hereunder. Upon termination of this case, counsel for the parties shall 8 assemble and return to each other all documents, material and deposition transcripts designated 9 as confidential and all copies of same, or shall certify the destruction thereof; provided, however, 10 that outside counsel for each party may retain one complete and unredacted set of pleadings and 11 papers filed with the Court or served on the other parties.
